OFFICIALS ARE HIGHLY ELATED

Believe Germany Will Modify Submarine Methods.

DANGER OF BREAK REMOTE

Count von Bernstorff Calls on Secretary Lansing and Informs Him German Submarine Commanders Have Been Ordered to Attack No More Merchant Ships Without Warning.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Two important developments in the relations between the United States and Germany further reduced the tenseness of the situation and were taken to foreshadow a declaration from Berlin on the subject of submarine warfare which would eliminate that source of discord between the two countries.

To say that Washington authorities are elated over the unexpectedly favorable turn of events is putting it mildly. It was apparent that they regarded recent developments as almost too good to be true. At the same time it was realized that a settlement of this acute issue by the president and the removal of the real danger that has confronted this government of being drawn into the European war will be a stroke of great importance politically to Mr. Wilson and the Democratic party.

Count von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, called on Secretary Lansing and informed him that the statement presented Tuesday by direction of the Berlin foreign office, saying there was no intent to cause loss of American lives when the White Star liner Arabic was destroyed, was intended to imply that German submarine commanders had been ordered to attack no more merchantmen without warning.

SITUATION HAS IMPROVED.

Ambassador Gerard, reporting from Berlin the substance of a conference with Foreign Minister von Jagow, confirmed the press dispatches that Germany, even before the sinking of the Arabic, had adopted a policy designed to settle completely the whole submarine problem. The state department did not make public Ambassador Gerard's dispatch, but the optimism immediately reflected at the state department and the White House was taken as proof that the situation was on the way to a settlement.

The more hopeful officials through the crisis passed and inferred the views which Ambassador von Bernstorff had been urging upon Berlin ever since the sinking of the Lusitania had prevailed with the support of the liberals in Germany who have been opposing the anti-American policy of the conservatives.

Secretary Lansing, while outwardly encouraged, was reserved, awaiting some definite declaration from Berlin, and the same attitude was reflected at the White House.

FURTHER COMMUNICATION COMING.

One fact was outstanding in the whole situation. It was that a further communication is coming from Germany outlining a policy, which, it is said, is expected to be satisfactory to the United States. It is understood that Germany will announce a suspension of her submarine warfare on passenger carrying ships and that submarine commanders will be instructed not to sink any merchantmen without warning pending a diplomatic discussion of the proposal for a modus vivendi for relaxation of the British blockade against neutral commerce.

From such information as had reached sources here it was apparent that the sinking of the Arabic—assuming that the ship was sunk by a submarine—was as much of a surprise in Germany as it was to the rest of the world, for, although it has not yet been officially stated, it is believed that German submarine commanders, after the sinking of the Lusitania, received instructions to avoid another such disaster.

TIGHTER LID FOR FRANCE

Minister of Finance Introduces Bill Aimed at Private Cellars.

Paris, Aug. 27.—The minister of finance, Alexandre Ribot, introduced a bill in the chamber of deputies providing for the comprehensive reform in the liquor trade.

The measure contemplates suppression of privileges enjoyed by private individuals, who are permitted to distill brandy from their own fruits, and for an increase in the tax on alcohol from 12 francs ($2.40) to 25 francs a gallon. To this is added a tax on consumption of 5 francs a gallon on appetizers and liquors.

It is also proposed that the state create monopoly in the manufacture of industrial alcohol.

AVIATOR SINKS SUBMARINE

British Flyer Drops Bombs on German Boat.

London, Aug. 27.—A German submarine has been destroyed near Ostend, Belgium, by a bomb dropped by an aeroplane. The text of the statement is as follows:

"The secretary of the admiralty announces that Squadron Commander Arthur W. Bigsworth, R. N., destroyed single handed a German submarine by bombs dropped from an aeroplane. The submarine was completely wrecked and sank off Ostend."

"The brilliant feat was performed in the immediate neighborhood of the coast in occupation of the enemy."

CARRANZA'S REPLY IS RATHER EVASIVE

In Answer to Peace Plea Mexican Asks if It's Official.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Consul Siliman at Vera Cruz cabled the state department a communication from Jesus Acuna, General Carranza's foreign minister, asking that he inquire whether Secretary Lansing and the Latin-American diplomats acted in their official capacities in addressing the recent appeal to Mexican leaders for a peace conference.

This was the first word from the Carranza government concerning the Pan-American appeal.

It was intimated in official circles that the only response to Acuna's question would be a message to Consul Siliman directing his attention to the fact that Secretary Lansing and all of the other conferees attached their full titles to their signatures. This, it was pointed out, left no room for doubt that the conferees acted officially and with the authority of their respective governments.

Officials were rather at a loss to explain the object of the Carranza minister's query. In some quarters, however, it was suggested that Carranza probably desired to delay his final response, which is expected to be an appeal for recognition, pending the establishment of his government in Mexico City, which is now in progress, and the outcome of General Obregon's campaign against Villa forces in the north.

MANKATO PHYSICIAN DIES

Former President of American Medical Association Succumbs.

Portland, Ore., Aug. 27.—Dr. John Milton Edwards, formerly of Mankato, Minn., died here after an illness of several months. He attended the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Chicago and graduated with honors. After practicing at Mankato he went abroad to continue his studies.

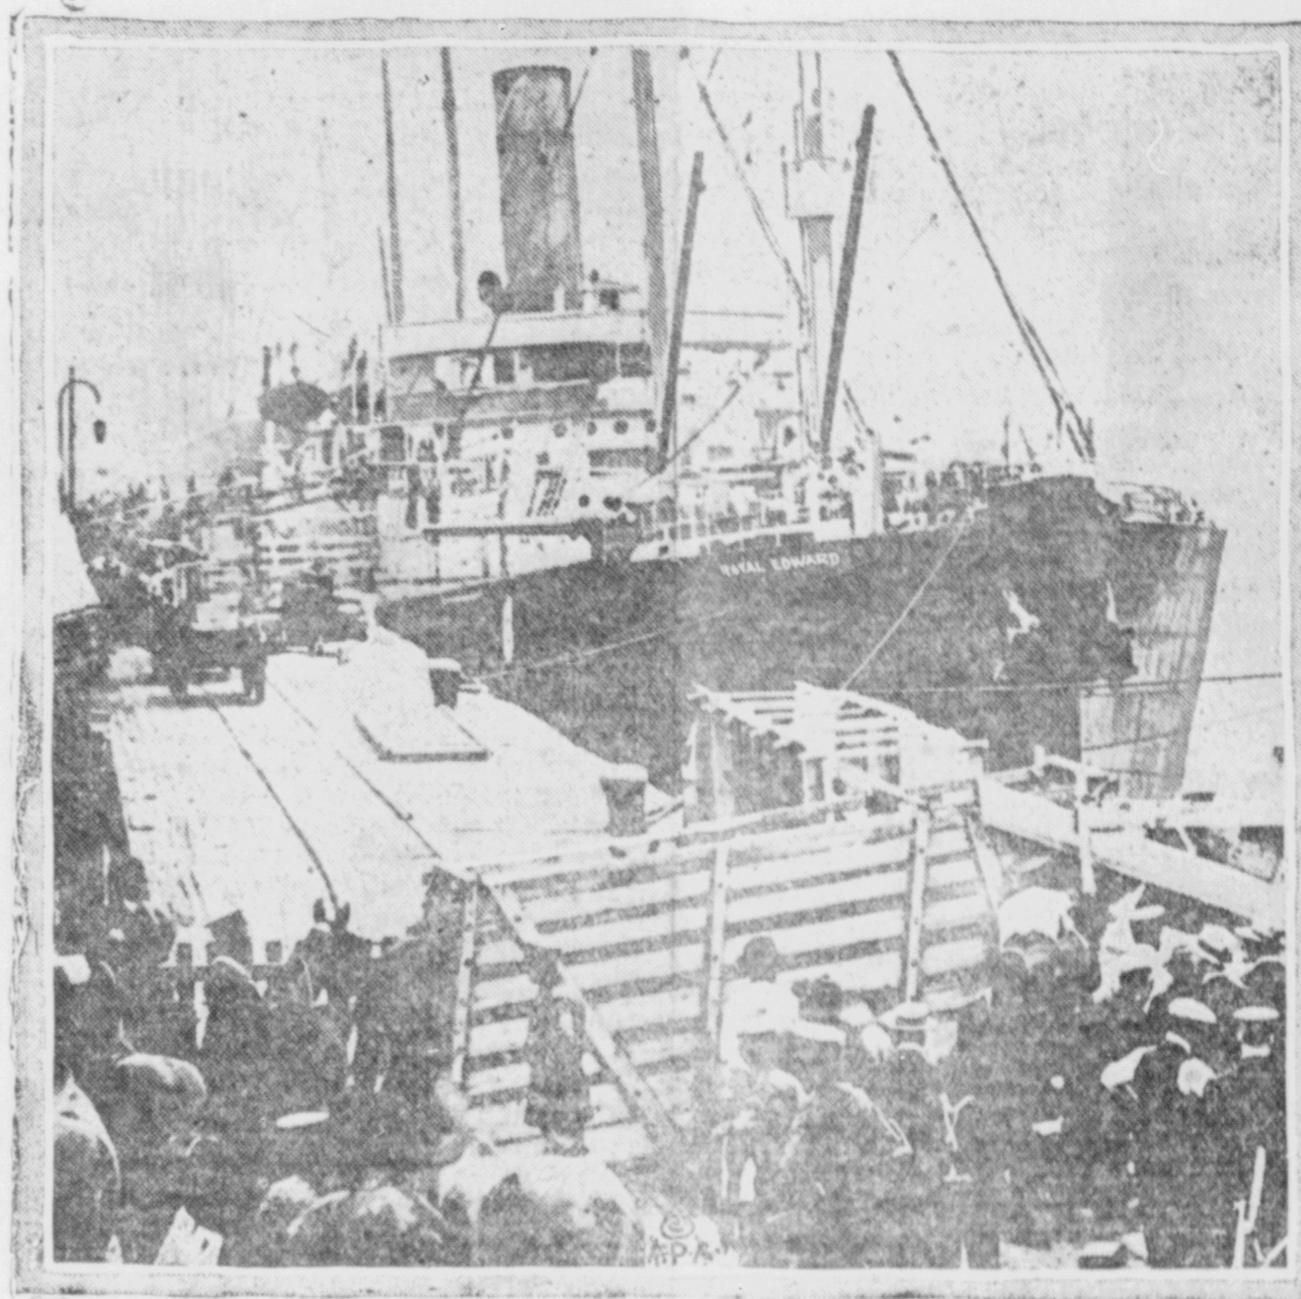

He was president of the American Medical association in 1910 and 1911 and was prominent in the Elk and Masonic lodges.

Lives Twelve Years on Coffee.

Baltimore, Aug. 27.—Kate Larber, thirteen years old, since she was fourteen months old has taken practically no nourishment except coffee, which she drinks in large quantities, sometimes twenty cups a day. Though emaciated and unable to stir from her couch, she appears normal in other ways.

It is also proposed that the state create monopoly in the manufacture of industrial alcohol.

Canadian Steamship Sunk With 1,000 Soldiers in Dardanelles

The Royal Edward when she loaded in Montreal at beginning of war

The Royal Edward, chartered by steamer, owned by the Canadian Northern Steamship Company, and is understood to have been commanded by the government for use as a transport at the beginning of the war.

The Royal Edward was built in 1908 at Glasgow. She carried 1,350 soldiers, 32 military officers, and a crew of 220. Of these some 600 were saved. She was an 11,117-ton triple-screw

A former attack by a Turkis submarine on a British transport, the Maniou, on April 18, was not so successful. The explosion, however, caused a panic aboard and many of the soldiers leaped into the sea, about 100 being drowned. The transport was reported by the British admiralty to have succeeded in landing the remainder of her company.

The Royal Edward was built in 1908 at Glasgow. She carried 1,350 soldiers, 32 military officers, and a crew of 220. Of these some 600 were saved. She was an 11,117-ton triple-screw

MORE MEN MUST JOIN ARMY

Earl of Selborne Hints Broadly at Conscription.

London, Aug. 27.—Something in the nature of conscription, though the term was not employed, was foreshadowed by the Earl of Selborne, president of the board of agriculture, in an address to a deputation of agricultural land owners which visited him in London.

"Many more men have got to join the army whether voluntarily or compulsorily," said the earl. "The agricultural laborer has done his part nobly in this war, but the response has been very unequal over the country and I forecast that during the next year men will be taken from districts and farms whence hitherto they have not gone."

Earl Selborne emphasized the fact that Russia's reverses had imposed a greater strain on her allies.

IMMENSE MERGER OF GREAT LAKES LINES

All Freight Steamers to Be Controlled by One Company.

Milwaukee, Aug. 27.—What is considered to be the most important move in the entire history of the freight service of the Great Lakes is scheduled to take effect immediately following the close of navigation this fall—a merger of all the package freight steamers now plying the big inland seas.

It was stated on unquestioned authority that the five largest standard lake lines will be consolidated into one and that the fleet of the new transportation company will number not less than forty-four vessels.

The new company will be incorporated for $29,000,000 and with few exceptions the steamers taken over are modern in all respects. Four Erie, twelve Anchor, twelve Mutual, six Lehigh and ten Western line craft will form the nucleus of the big merger. It is expected all these boats will run on schedule time through the entire navigation season.

William J. Conners of Buffalo, who is making a tour of the principal lake ports, is said to be the leading spirit in the new organization.

SAYS HE IS RESPONSIBLE

Colonel Roosevelt Declares Wood Is Not to Blame.

New York, Aug. 27.—Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, advised of Secretary Garrison's telegram to Major General Leonard Wood, said that he was entirely responsible for his own remarks at Plattsburgh. He also said he considered the secretary had no right to criticize General Wood.

The colonel seemed perturbed at the idea that his own remarks might reflect in any way upon the record of General Wood.

RUSSIANS RETAIN TWO FORTRESSES

Advancing Germans May Compel Their Evacuation.

CAZAR'S FORCES RETREATING

No Information Is Forthcoming Regarding Where Grand Duke Nicholas Will Make His Next Stand—Italians Claim Further Minor Successes.

London, Aug. 27.—With the occupation of Brest-Litovsk, the main Russian fortress and concentration center for the Bug river line of defenses, by the Austro-Germans, the lesser fortresses of Grodno and Olita now are the only strongly defended positions remaining in the hands of the Russians. Both these are being approached by the Germans and probably will be given up when they have fulfilled their purpose of facilitating the retreat of the Russian armies.

The Russians have not yet entered the vast Bielovizh forest, which extends thirty miles north and south and has a width of from seventeen to thirty miles. South of the forest the Propot marshes, which protect the Russian left, and, with plenty of roads and three or four railroad lines, it is said here that Grand Duke Nicholas will make good his retirement if Grodno and Vilna can hold out long enough.

Even if they should fall, military observers say, the grand duke would be well on his way to his new position before the Germans could reach his flank. There is again talk of Russian preparations for a stand, but no indication as yet as to where this attempt is to be made.

The admiralty report of the sinking of a German submarine by an aviator significantly stated that it has not been the practice of the admiralty to publish accounts regarding the losses of German submarines "important though they have been," in cases where the Germans had no other source of information as to the time and place at which these losses occurred.

It has been reported for months that a large number of German submarines, variously stated at from twenty to forty, have been caught by the British navy, but the statement is the only official admission that there were others than those previously announced by the admiralty as having been destroyed.

The Italians claim further minor successes on all their fronts, but these are consistently denied by Austria.

Of the operations on the Gallipoli peninsula, which are now so important to the cause of the allies, there is no further news.

BELGIUM MUST BE FREED

Premier Viviani Says People Are Not Ready for Peace.

Paris, Aug. 27.—Premier Viviani addressed the chamber of deputies immediately after the session was called to order. All members of the cabinet were on the ministerial benches. The galleries were filled with persons prominent in Paris, among them many women. Nearly all the members of the diplomatic corps were in their boxes.

"Put the question of peace before the country and it would be blown to nothing," the premier said. "Not until heroic Belgium has been freed, not until we have taken Alsace and Lorraine could there be mischievous discussions among us."

The chamber voted the credits asked by the government by 539 to 1.

NATIONAL GOLF MEET

Detroit, Mich., Aug. 27—Detroit tomorrow will be host to the crack amateur golfers of America and, in seven days of play, the twenty-first annual championship of the United States Golf Association will be determined. The play will be on the Detroit Country Club links.

The tournament is the blue ribbon event of the year in golf circles.

A. J. Caldwell, secretary of the tournament committee, declared today the entry list is one of the best and largest in the history of the meet. Practically all of the stars in the country will participate, including the following: Jerome D. Travers, Chick Evans, Francis Quimet, W. C. Fownes, Jr., G. A. Orms顿, Ned Sawyer, E. H. Bankard, Harry Davis, R. Y. Hayne, Donald Edwards, Kenneth Edwards, George Lyle, Albert Seckel, Walter Egan and Jimmy Standish.

Of this list, Travers and Fownes are the only former champions, but "Chick" Evans, western amateur champion, Harry Davis, Panama-Pacific title-holder, R. Y. Hayne, coast champion, and Albert Seckel, winner of the 1911 western amateur championship, are expected to offer opposition that will make Champion Quinet show his best to retain the title he annexed last year.

Seven days will be devoted to the playing off of the national championships, the qualifying round starting early tomorrow. Only 18 holes will be played the first day. Monday, the weeding-out process will be continued, but this time over the 36-hole course. Medal play will rule on both days.

Match play for 36-hole rounds will start Tuesday and continue until Friday, when the semi-finals will be reached. The finals will be staged Saturday.

The Country Club course is reported to be in excellent condition for the start of play. Varden and Ray, the British cracks, have pronounced the course one of the three best in America, ranking it with the Mayfield Links at Cleveland, and the Toronto, Ont., course.

The many social activities that will feature the tournament will start tonight when the Country Club will entertain the officers of the United States Golf Association at a banquet.

HOSKING TAKES EXCEPTION TO IT

Baseball Writer of the St. Paul Dispatch-Pioneer Press Nails the First Story of Bush

AND DECLARES IT A YARN

"While Schang is Laid Up" the Former Catcher of the Athletics Holding Down Third

Under a heading conspicuous enough to flag a freight on the Northern Pacific, E. R. Hosking of the St. Paul Dispatch, baseball writer for the Dispatch-Pioneer Twins, starts off, "Latest Bush Story Sounds Like Alibi for the Home Fans," "Report that Catchers Can't Handle Speed Resembles 'You Know Me Al' Stunt," the reading matter under the aforesaid headlines, top of page, left hand column, being:

"Joseph Leslie Bush of Brainerd, Minn., seems to be doing a little 'You Know Me Al' stunt of his own. The Brainerd press agent of the swell Little pitcher is sending out a story to the effect that Joe cannot pitch for the Philadelphia Athletics because Connie Mack has no catcher who can handle his speed 'while Schang is laid up.' As a matter of fact, Schang hasn't been laid up, but is playing third base, and the story bears the earmarks of having originated from a letter Mr. Bush wrote for home consumption."

Joe is having a poor year this season, having been pounded out of the box frequently; this doesn't mean that he is through by a long way, but the story that he is idle because his speed is too blinding for any of the Athletic backstops to handle will hardly hold water. If Joseph's speed was up to the standard suggested in the Brainerd story, surely it would be utilized against some of the batters who are finding the rest of Mack's pitchers easy meat."

The first report that no one could hold him except Schange was a second handed report received by a grape-vine route and as such had as much worth as a lot of other second-hand stuff. It was not from a letter for home consumption either.

The letter to Fat Woods published Wednesday for the first time in the Brainerd Dispatch tells the true story that Bush is out of the game on account of the injury to his knee, and may be out the whole season. He has since been scouting for Connie Mack.

MORE BIG TROUT

Speckled Beauty Weighing Full Three Pounds Caught by Oscar H. Olson in Whiteley Creek

O. H. Johnson of the Ransford hotel, is not the only trout fisherman in Brainerd by a long shot. His recent honors in landing a speckled trout weighing 2 1/4 pounds has been eclipsed by Oscar H. Olson of this city who landed a speckled trout weighing 3 pounds and measuring 17 1/2 inches.

The trout was caught in Whiteley creek and that creek is not a raging torrent by any means. When somebody sniffed at the story of Olson and seemed to doubt his word, for every fisherman has an awful time getting people to believe stories about big fish, Oscar said very shortly:

"If you fellows don't believe me, I can show you."

He rushed home and seized the fish from the oven, where one side had been roasted a toothsome brown. He bore his half-cooked fish down town, first depositing him on some ice and displayed the fruits of the reel.

Later he took his fish home and baked the other side and by this time there is little left except a memory and that won't be erased for a long time, for Olson is now some fisherman.

GARRISON TAKES PROMPT ACTION

Deprecates Roosevelt's Remarks at Military Camp.

TELEGRAPHS GENERAL WOOD

Secretary of War Says Such Addresses
Have a Detrimental Effect and Declares Nothing Similar Should Be Permitted in the Future.

Washington, Aug. 27.—Secretary Garrison telegraphed Major General Leonard Wood, expressing his depreciation that opportunity was given at the citizen soldier camp at Plattsburg, N. Y., for Colonel Roosevelt's sensational speech of Wednesday and directed nothing similar should be permitted at any of the other camps.

Secretary Garrison referred to Colonel Roosevelt's remarks on the military unpreparedness of the country and the attitude of the administration. His telegram to General Wood is, in part:

"I have just seen the report in the newspapers of the speech made by former President Roosevelt at the Plattsburg camp. It is difficult to conceive of anything which could have a more detrimental effect upon the real value of this experiment than such an incident."

"This camp, held under government auspices, was successfully demonstrating many things of great moment. Its virtue consisted in the fact that it conveyed its own impressive lessons in its practical and successful operation and results.

Only Distracts Attention.

"No opportunity should have been furnished to any one to present to the men any matter excepting that which was essential to the necessary training they were there to receive. Anything else could only have the effect of distracting attention from the real nature of the experiment, diverting consideration to issues which excite controversy, antagonism and ill feeling, and thereby impairing if not destroying what otherwise would have been so effective."

"There must not be any opportunity given at Plattsburg or at any other similar camp for any such unfortunate consequences."

Secretary Garrison said he had no further action now under contemplation. He said he had not discussed the matter with President Wilson and had no knowledge of the president's views. The secretary said he had not considered whether his telegram to General Wood would have any effect upon the general's record.

At the same time Secretary Garrison made public a portion of a letter from General Wood explaining the general's own speech on Aug. 14, which was called to the notice of the war department. The general's explanation of his own remarks was satisfactory to the war department.

THE GALLIPOLI PENINSULA

By J. W. T. Mason, for United Press

The operations proceeding on the Gallipoli peninsula indicate a failure of the first and second land offensives of the Anglo-French forces to subdue the Dardanelles. A third plan is now being developed.

The first military effort of the Allies to open the way to Constantinople took the form of a double attack along the Gallipoli and Asiatic sides of the Dardanelles.

The French disembarked on the Asiatic coast and the British made several landings on the Gallipoli peninsula. The French were driven back into the sea and the British could not hold all their shore positions.

A second plan was then devised. The French and the English concentrated at the southern tip of the Gallipoli and made this their sole offensive. They drove forward along a line which was occupied by the French line along the Dardanelles side of the peninsula and by the British on the Egean side. But again failure resulted.

The third plan is now coming into play. The attempt to reach the Dardanelles narrows from the south has been postponed, while a new effort is being made to drive across the peninsula from the west. This is the meaning of the new landings along the Suvla bay district. The distance to be covered, whether from the south or west, is approximately the same—from six to eight miles. There is little to choose between the difficulties of the rough country which must be overcome, by either route. The advantage of the new offensive, however, is that a larger force can be employed.

The Gallipoli peninsula is scarcely more than four miles across the southern tip, where the previous offensive was attempted. So narrow a front is of great advantage to the defenders. By operating from the west, an additional front of 15 miles, at least, is made available for the drive to the narrow. The British announce they have consolidated 12 miles of this new battlefield. For the first time, therefore, the Allies are in a position to operate against the Turks with a force proportionate to the strength of the Mohammedan defenses.

Priest Shoots Bishop Because Recalled

(By United Press)

Winona, Minn., Aug. 27.—Rev. Father L. M. Lesches shot and probably fatally injured Bishop Patrick Heffron, bishop of the Winona diocese of the Catholic church, following the bishop's refusal to send the priest to another parish, following his recent failures. The shooting occurred in the bishop's chapel while the bishop was alone and in full vestments. The priest failed to hold the parishes at Mankato and St. Paul, and was recalled. The bishop told him he must remain within the college here, but the priest insisted upon an appointment. The bishop may live unless complications set in.

ANNUAL MEETING OF AMERICAN PLOWMEN

National Farmers' Union Renders Unselfish Service to Agriculture.

By Peter Radford.

The National Farmers' Union will hold its annual convention in Lincoln, Nebraska, on September seventh, and will round out the eleventh year of its activities in the interest of the American plowman. When that convention is called to order every farmer in America should pause and bow his head in honor of the men gathered there to render a patriotic and unselfish service to agriculture. That organization, born in the cotton fields of Texas, has grown until geographically it covers almost the whole of the United States and economically it deals with every question in which the welfare of the men who bare their backs to the summer sun are involved. It has battled for a better marketing system, rural credits, cheap money, diversification, scientific production, agricultural legislation and has carried on its work of education and co-operation in season and out.

The Farmers' Educational and Cooperative Union of America brings the question of organization squarely before every farmer in this nation. Without organization the farmers can neither help themselves nor be helped by others and through organization and systematic effort all things are possible.

The farmers of the United States contribute more and get less from government than any other class of business. They have better securities and pay a higher rate of interest than any other line of industry. They market more products and have less to say in fixing the price than any other business and they get more political bungcombe and less constructive legislation than any other class of people. The farmers can only acquire such influence in business, in government and in economics as will enable them to share equitably the fruits of their labor through organization and every farmer on American soil who desires to help himself and his fellow plowmen should rally around the Union.

DENY GERMAN BANKRUPTCY

Bankers Ridicule Tale of Secret Conference at Berlin.

New York, Aug. 27.—Leading bankers dismissed as unworthy of belief the Amsterdam Telegraaf's report about a secret conference in Berlin in which it says Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg told German leaders that Germany is near to bankruptcy, that the new war loan would deplete Germany's resources and that early peace is necessary. While no one of the local bankers knows the exact state of Germany's internal finances it is known that Germany is practically living within herself.

AUTO EXPORTS ARE DOUBLED

Report Shows 100 Per Cent Increase in Year Ended June 30.

New York, Aug. 27.—Export business in automobiles has increased 100 per cent in the past twelve months, according to a report from the department of commerce. The report was supplemented by information compiled by the National Automobile Chamber of Commerce and stated that 37,750 motor vehicles had been exported by domestic dealers during the past year. These were valued at $60,254,635, the report said.

WOUNDED MEN TELL OF FIGHTING TURKS.

London, Aug. 27.—Wounded men who have arrived in Alexandria tell of how nearly the allies came to gaining a great success in one of their attacks on Gallipoli peninsula. An Australian officer declared that if the allied forces had had two more hours of darkness they could have covered 600 yards of ground which separates them from the Sarl Bahr hill. Once this was in the allies' hands the Turkish communications would have been cut.

The farmers of the United States contribute more and get less from government than any other class of business. They have better securities and pay a higher rate of interest than any other line of industry. They market more products and have less to say in fixing the price than any other business and they get more political bungcombe and less constructive legislation than any other class of people. POLITICAL GOSSIPS

When one class of people has anything to say, it has become largely the custom to make a political issue out of it instead of a friendly discussion, to print it in a law book instead of a newspaper and to argue it before a jury instead of to settle it in the higher courts of Common Sense. As a result, political agitators, political lawyers, political preachers and masculine women are powerful in politics and dissension, selfishness, intolerance and hysterics run rampant in public affairs, for when the low, damp, murky atmosphere of misunderstanding envelops public thought it breeds political reptiles, vermin, bugs and lice which the pure air of truth and the sunshine of understanding will choke to death.

We have too many self-appointed interpreters of industry who are incapable of grasping the fundamental principles of business and who at best can only translate gossip and add color to sensational stories. No business can stand upon error and might rules—right or wrong. No industry can thrive upon misunderstanding, for public opinion is more powerful than a King's sword.

When prejudice, suspicion and class hatred prevail, power gravitates into the hands of the weak, for demagogues thrive upon dissension and statesmen sticken upon strife.

Russians continue advance in East Prussia.

Austrian defenses of Lemberg driven back to fortifications by Russians.

Louvain completely destroyed by Germans as reprisal for alleged hostile acts.

German torpedo boat S-90 sunk off Chefoo by British torpedo boat Welland.

The remedy lies in eliminating the middleman—the political gossip—and this result can be accomplished by the managers of business sitting around the table of industry and talking it over with the people. Interchange of information between industries and the people is as necessary to success in business as interchange in commodities, for the people can only rule when the public understands. Away with political interpreters who summon evil spirits from their prison cells and loose them to prey upon the welfare of the people in the name of "My Country."

How It Turned Out.

"Did Blabson's love affair have a happy ending?"

"I presume so. I saw his former fiancee the other day, and she must weight at least 200 pounds."

"Do you suppose that makes Blabson happy?"

"At least it doesn't make him unhappy. You see, she didn't marry Blabson."

PHILIP

Philip, the Macedonian king, while drowsy with wine was trying a case and the prisoner after sentence was pronounced, exclaimed, "I appeal!"

"And to whom do you appeal?" inquired the astonished monarch.

"I appeal from Philip drunk to Philip sober," replied the prisoner, and the king granted the request and at a re-hearing gave the prisoner his liberty.

The people drowsy with the wine of discord oftentimes pronounce a verdict on public questions which they reverse in their more calm and deliberate moments. The next best thing to making no mistakes is to correct them.
